ORDER ON UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL

Currently before the Court is Defendant Kenya Brown's Unopposed Motion to Continue [Doc. 21] the pretrial conference for July 12, 2023 and the trial, which is set to begin on August 7, 2023, in Macon, Georgia. On March 14, 2023, the Grand Jury returned an indictment charging Defendant with Receipt of a Firearm by a Person under Felony Indictment. On March 30, 2023, Defendant was arrested. Defendant was appointed counsel, pled not guilty at his arraignment, and detained pending trial.

In the Motion, Defense Counsel requests a continuance as she will be unavailable for the scheduled pretrial conference. Having considered the matter, the Court finds it serves the ends of justice to grant Defendant's request. The ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the interests of Defendant and the public in a speedy trial. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the ability to be present at Defendant's pretrial conference and could result in a miscarriage of justice. Thus,

Defendant's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [Doc. 21] is GRANTED, and IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this case be continued until the September 25, 2023 term of Court for the Macon Division. The delay occasioned by this continuance shall be deemed excludable pursuant to the provisions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161.

SO ORDERED, this 11th day of July, 2023.
